In celebration of the Huron-Perth
Centre for Children & Youth's
40th Anniversary

Dr. Ungar is among the best known writers and researchers on the topic of resilience in the world. His work has changed the way resilience is understood, shifting the focus from individual traits to the interactions between people and their families, schools workplaces and communities.

Dr. Ungar will be speaking on his book I Still Love you, 9 Things Troubled Kids Need from Their Parents. This book for parents of children with serious emotional, psychological and behavioural challenges offers nine practical and effective strategies that parents can use to make children change troubling behaviours and become more resilient.
